

The Enterprise Research Centre undertakes research to develop an understanding of the factors affecting business investment performance and growth, focused on SMEs.

A partnership between Business Schools at the Universities of Aston, Birmingham and Warwick, together with Imperial College and Strathclyde University.

Produced The Unlocking UK Productivity report, in partnership with Goldman Sachs, and the British Business Bank, which highlights importance of SME innovation and exports in boosting UK productivity.

Benchmarking Local Innovation study mapped the UK's 'innovation geography' for first time.