

The Midlands Physics Alliance is a coordinated research group and joint Graduate School with the critical mass to compete with the top US and EU Universities.

A core of the Universities of Birmingham, Nottingham and Warwick, Leicester and Loughborough.

One of four UK Quantum Technology Hubs supported by £80m in funding from government and industry.

Ensures that The Midlands is central to one of the key emerging fields of the 21st century: quantum technology.

Graduate School for training PhD students.